

B.A. Communicative Disorders

Student Learning Outcomes

Information Literacy	Students will demonstrate competence in information literacy
Critical Thinking	Students will demonstrate competence in critical thinking
Oral and written communication	Students will demonstrate competence in oral and written communication
Restrictive Major Requirements	Students will successfully complete the restrictive major requirements
Successful completion of requirements for graduation	Students will successfully complete the requirements necessary for graduation
Admittance to a graduate program	Students will gain admittance into a graduate program
Competence in Technology	Students will demonstrate competence in technology typically used in the field of speech-language pathology.