

Society for Philosophical Study of Religion, Science, and Asian Thought (a Metanexus Local Society)
and Ethnic Studies Institute of West Chester University present

Ramakrishna Puligandla

Emeritus Professor of Philosophy, University of Toledo

Some Reflections on Science-Religion Discourses

Professor Puligandla is a distinguished philosopher of both Indian and Western Philosophy, and has authored several books including An Encounter with Awareness, Fundamentals of Indian Philosophy, and Reality and Mysticism: Perspectives in the Upanishads. His lecture will critically analyze the dialogue between science and religion.

Wednesday, November 18th 3:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. in Philips Autograph Library
and
4:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. in
Main Hall 400

Contacts: kkumar@wcupa.edu or fhoffman@wcupa.edu