

Application for Writing Center Graduate Assistantship Positions

If you are an enthusiastic writer, and if you enjoy working one-on-one with peers, then an assistantship in the Writing Center may be the right job for you. Please complete the application below. Follow the submission instructions at the bottom of the page by April 23, 2010. Interviews will be conducted in early May 2010. If accepted for a GA Tutor position, you will be required to enroll in ENG 600 (Tutoring Composition) this coming fall as part of your training for tutoring in the Writing Center.

I. Personal Information

Name: _____

Current Mailing Address: _____
_____
_____

email: _____

Phone: _____

I wish to be considered for a HALF-TIME* _____ assistantship, FULL-TIME***
_____ assistantship, or BOTH _____.

II. Please prepare a typed response to the following questions, which you may attach to this cover sheet. (Your answers are important, so please take some time composing your responses)

1. Why do you wish to become a Writing Center tutor?
2. What background experiences and/or qualifications would you bring to the position of Writing Center tutor?

III. Please submit with this application AND a sample of your recent academic writing (no comments or grades) AND your current resume or curriculum vitae to:

Margaret C. Ervin, Ph.D.
Writing Center Director
Lawrence 214 (610) 436-2121
mervin@wcupa.edu

For more information about the Writing Center, please visit our website at:
http://www.wcupa.edu/\_academics/writingcenter/

---

* HALF-TIME graduate assistants, in return for 10 hours of assigned duties per week, receive tuition remission for 6 credits per semester, a stipend of $2500 for the academic year, and must be enrolled for 6 credits per semester.

** FULL-TIME graduate assistants, in return for 20 hours of assigned duties per week, receive tuition remission and a stipend of $5000 for the academic year and must be enrolled as full-time graduate students (9-15 credits).