

Office of Service-Learning and Volunteer Programs
 Spring 2008 Course Report
 Business and Public Affairs

Course	Course Abbreviation	First Name	Last Name	Sections	Service Learning	Service Learning Participation	Total Service Learning Hours	Project
Senior Seminar in Management	MGT498	Evan	Leach	2	Required	47	2,115	Students worked in groups to research and provide consultations on a variety of topics relating to the effectiveness of the University. A sample of the topics includes student alcohol consumption and academic performance, obesity and student dietary habits, financial literacy and student debt, student participation in University extracurricular activities, and the relationship between student housing and academic performance. Students' final reports and presentations included statement of problem, identification of major research questions and hypotheses, literature review, data collection methodology, data analysis and recommendations for management intervention.
Latin American Culture & Politics	PSC340	Linda	Stevenson	2	Optional	14	420	La Comunidad Hispana - office support <input type="checkbox"/> The Garage Afterschool program - tutoring <input type="checkbox"/> Kennett Elementary School <input type="checkbox"/> Kennett High School <input type="checkbox"/> Maternal & Child Health Consortium <input type="checkbox"/> Team YWCA After-school program - West Chester <input type="checkbox"/> Henderson High School - ESL <input type="checkbox"/> Police Athletic League

Office of Service-Learning and Volunteer Programs
 Spring 2008 Course Report
 Business and Public Affairs

Course	Course Abbreviation	First Name	Last Name	Sections	Service Learning	Service Learning Participation	Total Service Learning Hours	Project
Introduction to Social Work Practice	SWO220	Claire	Dente	2	Required	44	440	BEST Program: Bringing Elders and Students Together Students are assigned an older adult volunteer in the community. They meet three times with this person to put together a book of the person's life using social work assessment tools and strategies. The students and volunteers then gather at a luncheon for the students to present the book to their volunteer.
TOTALS	2 Courses		3 Faculty	6 Sections		105 Participants	2,975 Total Hours	