

M.A. Communicative Disorders

Student Learning Outcomes

Information Literacy	Students will demonstrate competence in information literacy
Competence in critical thinking	Students will demonstrate competence in critical thinking
Competence in oral and written communication	Students will demonstrate competence in oral and written communication
Successfully complete the requirements necessary for graduation	Students will successfully complete the academic and clinical requirements necessary for graduation
Successfully complete the KASA requirement for ASHA certification	Students will successfully complete the KASA requirement for ASHA certification
Gain employment for the completion of a CFY	Students will gain employment for the completion of a CFY
Students will demonstrate competence in technology typically used in the field of speech-language pathology	Students will demonstrate competence in technology typically used in the field of speech-language pathology.