

2023 Call for Proposals

PASSHE Writing Council's Inaugural Composition and Rhetoric Conference

DRIVING INNOVATION WHILE SUPPORTING INTELLECTUAL FREEDOM

We invite you to join scholars & practitioners of rhetoric and composition and share your innovative pedagogical practices & research with colleagues across the PASSHE System.

How can writing and how we teach writing support the intellectual freedoms of faculty while empowering students to develop a voice of their own? Proposals should fundamentally focus on this question and include one or more of the following pathways:

- Innovative Instructional Methods
- Scholarship of Teaching & Learning
- Ethics & Social Responsibility
- Diversity, Equity & Inclusion

PROPOSAL GUIDELINES & INFO

- Title and Short Abstract (up to 50 words)
- Extended description (up to 500 words) that includes presentation's purpose, goals, methodology & outcomes.
- 45-minute presentations (Individual or Collaborative)
- All submissions due July 14, 2023 to isancak-marusa@wcupa.edu
