The Lang Antiques Fine Arts Scholarship

About

Everyone on the Lang team shares a love of the arts and a dedication to preserving history. In support of this goal, we have created an online library called Antique Jewelry University. This database is a resource for students, appraisers, artists, historians, and jewelry lovers of all kinds. As a further commitment to the importance of ongoing education, we are also sponsoring a $1,000 Lang Antiques Fine Arts Scholarship Fund.

Eligibility

The Lang Antiques Fine Arts Scholarship is open to any student enrolled in an undergraduate or graduate degree program by September 1, 2016 at any accredited U.S. college, university or institute.

How To Enter

Each applicant must submit an essay of 500 words or more which includes:

1. Applicant's name, address, phone number, email address, and the college, university or institute of attendance on September 1, 2016
2. ESSAY QUESTION: Please share an example of how you were inspired by a work of art from the past and describe how it influences your present day artistic style. And what style or technique in today's art world do you think might be popular in the future? Please note, your essay does not have to be about jewelry in particular. You may draw from any of the fine arts - painting, sculpture, music, dance, or whatever moves you.

Where to Apply:

Each applicant must submit their application by using this online form or by email at scholarship@langantiques.com following the above instructions to complete the scholarship application.
