The best minds of tomorrow's work force have yet to be discovered, and we know that they come from all walks of life and socioeconomic backgrounds. We also believe that any financial support, large or small, can serve as a spark for someone's education, where a different path may have otherwise been taken. With these beliefs in mind, Opportunity has created a $1,000 scholarship fund.

Eligibility

- Enrollment:

  The Opportunity Influence of Social Media Scholarship is open to any student enrolled in an undergraduate or graduate degree program by September 1, 2016 at any accredited U.S. college, university or institute.

- Application:

  Each applicant must submit an essay of 500 words or less that includes the following:

  1. Applicant's name, address, phone number, and the university or institute of attendance as of September 1, 2016.

  2. ESSAY QUESTION: Social media is becoming a major factor when applying for jobs. How has it affected or how will it affect your job/internship search? Tell us what's working and what's missing currently. How would you make the process better? Be specific. Tell us ideas, suggestions and features that you would like to see.
