

WCUPA CENTER FOR
WOMEN AND GENDER
EQUITY

CREDIT: KWYNN
GONZALEZ-PONS,
UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

UNDERSTANDING TECHNOLOGY- FACILITATED SEXUAL VIOLENCE

COVID-19 has us living our lives
more online than ever before; no person ever deserves a violation of their autonomy, in any form.

WHAT IS TECHNOLOGY- FACILITATED SEXUAL VIOLENCE?

- Use of websites and social media to initiate intimate contact with folks, including in person meetings.
- Use of cell phones to share pictures of non-consensual acts
- Use of cell phones to share recordings of non-consensual acts or media taken without the consent of all parties
- Sharing non-consensual videos or pictures on social media or websites
- Sending unsolicited images (e.g. dick picks, nude photos, etc.)_ through DMs or texts

ADDRESSING TECHNOLOGY-FACILITATED SEXUAL VIOLENCE

CENTER CONSENT

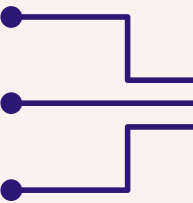

Always ask! Promote consent in all forms by getting a clear, specific yes before sharing content, pictures, or videos.

OFFER SUPPORT

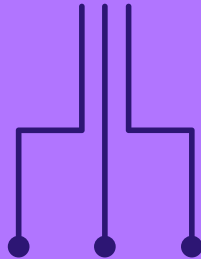

If a friend confides in you about a potential violation, listen and refer to resources so they can decide what healing looks like.

STEP UP ON SOCIAL MEDIA

Report posts or comments that look concerning or contain content that may not be consensual. Utilize privacy settings to control who can see your content and send you messages.

RESOURCES FOR SURVIVORS

WCUPA SEXUAL MISCONDUCT POLICY

These forms of sexual violence are violations and can be reported to Title IX. Support measures available to students, faculty & staff.

CRIME VICTIMS CENTER OF CHESTER COUNTY

For folks in Chester county, call 610-692-7273 for support and next steps.

RAINN

RAINN can help any survivor any time via phone 800-656-4673 or chat at rainn.org

