

2019 WCU Student Affairs Professional Involvement Report

Executive Summary

Professional development is an important investment for the Division of Student Affairs. It supports faculty and staff in staying current with trends, sharpening their skills, expanding their knowledge, and passing these competencies on to peers and students. Professional development comes in a variety of forms, from engaging in academic programs, attending conferences, listening to webinars and podcasts, to reading and sharing articles. It makes us a better organization and ensures we continue to be prepared to lead in the future.

We encourage all members of the Division of Student Affairs to participate in professional development opportunities throughout the year. This report describes faculty and staff professional development activities, accomplishments, contributions to the field, and support for their communities during academic year 2018-2019.

- ❖ A total of 123 faculty and staff completed the professional involvement form.
- ❖ Eighty-one percent of faculty and staff hold a Master's degree or higher. The most common areas of study were education, higher education, business, psychology and counseling. Faculty and staff also held more than 120 certifications.
- ❖ Areas of expertise range widely from administration, community engagement, customer service, education, event/program management, health and wellness, leadership, career readiness and human resources.
- ❖ Faculty and staff members received a variety of grants and awards. They include the Outstanding Advisory Award from the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators, Coach of the Year from the Eastern College Athletics Conference and the It's On Us Grant from Governor Wolf's It's On Us PA campaign for education and sexual assault prevention.
- ❖ Division of Student Affairs faculty and staff held memberships in 82 professional organizations, provided over 50 conference presentations, served on 28 external advisory boards, completed ten publications, eight guest lectures, and one panel discussion.
- ❖ In addition to university-wide volunteer opportunities, faculty and staff engaged in service with 154 external organizations. The organization areas included most frequently were community engagement, health, education and religious/spiritual life.
