

West Chester University Policy & Process Advisor Information

A policy & process advisor is an individual who provides support and guidance to a complainant or respondent throughout an investigation and/or conduct proceeding. This advisor is a resource in helping students understand their rights and responsibilities. If you are interested in meeting with a policy & process advisor, their information can be found below. You can request to meet with an advisor by contacting them through phone or email. Please note that advisor schedules and availability vary throughout the year and it is helpful to reach out as soon as you are interested in order to provide appropriate time to schedule.
