2016 Frame My Future Scholarship

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>About</th>
<th>Church Hill Classics known online as diplomaframe.com is located in Connecticut, where for the past 25 years they have manufactured custom diploma frames for colleges, universities, and high schools. Unlike most of the traditional scholarships, there are no essays to write, no grade or academic requirements—it is all about creativity.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Eligibility | The 2016 scholarship contest is open to students who are:
- Attending a U.S. college or university full-time for the 2016-2017 academic year (including community college, undergraduate, or graduate school)
- A legal U.S. resident |
| How To Enter | Students are challenged to create a visual entry, whether it is a photograph, collage, painting, illustration, poem, short story—any single piece that demonstrates what he/she would like to do in their personal and professional life after college. Entrants are asked to follow the theme: This is how I Frame my Future.
Church Hill Classics will select 24 Finalists based on the creativity of the full entry, including the entry image and accompanying description (maximum of 500 characters). The full entry must:
- Be your own work and relate to the theme - This is how I Frame My Future
- Contain correct grammar and spelling
The 24 Finalists advance to a one-month public voting phase. The five entries with the most votes will each earn a $1,000 scholarship. The top vote-getter also earns the $1,000 donation for his/her college or university's scholarship endowment fund. |
| Award Amount | Five $1,000 scholarship awards
One $1,000 donation to Grand Prize Winner’s college/university |
| Deadline | March 8, 2016 |
| Website | www.framemyfuture.com |