This document constitutes an agreement between the undersigned student-resident (hereinafter called "resident") and West Chester University (hereinafter called "University"), acting by and through its Office of Residence Life and Housing Services, and sets forth the terms and conditions on which the resident will occupy the premises in the University-owned student residence halls and apartments. The University provides residential premises for enrolled students only, with preference given to full-time undergraduate students. Arrangements also may be made for Students enrolled less than full-time status depending on specific circumstances. Assignments are made without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status, disability, veteran status, ancestry, age, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

Upon accepting the initial housing deposit for the fall semester, the University guarantees on-campus housing to new first-year students for two consecutive terms or semesters. (All assurances or guarantees in this Policy are subject to extraordinary circumstances, such as those presented in the 2020 pandemic). The conditions are that each person is enrolled as a full-time WCU student, pays all fees, meets all deadlines, and follows all established procedures for continued living in University housing. Once new first-year students complete two consecutive terms or semesters, University housing is obtainable on a space-available basis. Students who leave University housing before completing two consecutive terms are no longer guaranteed housing. For all other students, University housing is obtainable on a space-available basis.

This agreement is binding for the entire academic year, and the resident will be billed for residential premises. Cancellations may be made for residents who withdraw from the University. Notification must be made of withdrawal before the start of the semester, or a pro-rated charge may be deducted from the amount previously paid.

This agreement becomes effective upon the issuance of Residence Life and Housing Service's room assignment. The $200.00 room deposit is non-refundable upon cancellation or release from this agreement. All residents are expected to activate and use their assigned University e-mail account. Correspondence regarding this agreement will occur via the University e-mail address assigned to the resident, and the resident is considered duly notified upon transmission of information by the University to that email address. For each semester, occupancy shall begin as specified in the Office of Residence Life and Housing Services' assignment confirmation e-mail. The check-in e-mail will contain special arrangements and information. The dates for registration can be found on the Registrar's Website via www.wcupa.edu.

The Office of Residence Life and Housing Services may cancel the Agreement or change the assignment of any resident who does not officially check into their assignment within 48 hours of opening in both the fall and spring semesters. Such residents shall continue to be bound by all terms and conditions, including all charges outlined in this Agreement.

A number of University policies are attached to this agreement as Exhibit A and are required to be followed by all residents. The Residents are responsible to review these policies.

COVID-19 VIRUS AND COMMUNICABLE DISEASE WARNING AND OBLIGATIONS.

Acknowledgement of risk. As may be the case with any business or other facility that you may visit, your entrance into, or use of, our facilities or property for any purpose may expose you to the COVID-19 Virus. The risks of such exposure are such that they cannot be fully controlled by the University. If you decide to enter, use, or occupy our property or facilities, you acknowledge that your decision is made knowingly and voluntarily, with full knowledge of this risk. If you are not willing to accept this risk, please do not sign this Agreement or enter our facilities. Your signature on this Agreement represents an acknowledgement and acceptance of the risks associated with exposure to the COVID-19 virus or any other communicable disease.

Duty to notify. You also agree to notify University Residence Life staff if you become infected with the COVID-19 Virus or come into close contact with another person that is known to be infected and follow all isolation or other reasonable social distancing requirements that the University may impose. If you are symptomatic and tested for COVID-19, you agree to self-report by completing the designated University report form. If medical advice or applicable state or federal public health guidelines dictate, you agree to promptly quarantine/isolate at an off-campus location at your sole expense until Student Health Services clears you to return to campus.

The undersigned resident and their parent/guardian/guarantor (to the extent they are a party to this Agreement) and all guests in on-campus housing facilities will be required to follow the rules, regulations, and guidelines outlined by West Chester University in this Agreement and any policies or directives issued after this Agreement is signed. These rules, regulations and guidelines will address issues such as mandatory COVID testing, wearing of mask, physical distancing, and other public health requirements.

It is the residents' responsibility to ensure they follow the current editions of the "Ram's Eye View", The Student Code of Conduct, all federal, state, county, local, and university guidelines as communicated to residents via https://www.wcupa.edu/studentcommunityagreements. Violation of this Agreement will result in applicable University action and possible referral to other government agencies.

Should the rules and regulations issued by the University require you to leave campus for purposes of isolation or quarantine, no refunds, credits, or reductions in cost will be issued.

1. PREMISES AND USE:

A. Subject to the terms and conditions in this Agreement, Residence Life and Housing Services Hereby agrees to allow the Resident to use the Premises (hereinafter the "Premises").

B. During the Term, Resident may use the Premises for residential purposes only and may use the Common Areas only for the purposes for which Residence Life and Housing Services makes them available for Residents of the Facility, all subject to the Rules and Regulations which are attached hereto and are a part of this Agreement, as well as the University's "Ram's Eye View" (which is a set of applicable policies) and the "Student Code of Conduct", which are not attached hereto, but are equally applicable to all residents.

C. Residence Life and Housing Services may, from time to time, amend and supplement the Rules and Regulations. Residence Life and Housing Services will communicate these changes with 72 hours of advanced notice by electronic means and post a statement at the Facility. The only exception would be in a dire emergency where Residents' well-being would be compromised by providing such notice.

D. Resident must abide by the University's Rules and Regulations, the University's "Ram's Eye View" and "Student Code of Conduct" as each may be updated from time to time. Violation of any of them shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement.

E. To terminate the Agreement, the Resident must give Residence Life and Housing Services written notice before Residence Life, and Housing Services delivers possession. After Residence Life and Housing Services receive Resident's information, Residence Life and Housing Services will refund any Rent previously paid by Resident for periods where Resident did not enjoy possession.

F. Resident agrees that this Agreement extends the right to use the Premises to Resident only, and not another person. Anyone other than the Resident who visits, occupies, or stays at the Premises with Resident's permission is a guest unless the person is a Resident of the Premises by being a party to a separate Agreement with Residence Life and Housing Services. The Resident may only bring authorized guests into the Premises. The Resident will be responsible for all guests' actions (including, without limitation, paying for damage caused by a guest) and ensuring that the guests follow all Residence Life and Housing Services and University rules and regulations while at the Facility.

G. Resident agrees that Residence Life and Housing Services may choose to assign a space when this Agreement is signed because of roommate matching needs. Resident agrees that if Residence Life and Housing Services does not allocate a room when this Agreement is signed, it does not relieve Resident of their responsibilities under this Agreement. Residence Life and Housing Services will have the option to assign a roommate to any vacant comparable bedroom/space before or during the term of this Agreement. Residence Life and Housing Services will provide a 48-hour notice, prior to a new roommate moving into the vacant space.

H. The Resident understands that any specific building or apartment requested by the Resident cannot be guaranteed by Residence Life and Housing Services and all room assignments are subject to availability.

I. The Resident understands that the furniture provided, the layout of the room and unit, and square footage of the assigned bedroom and unit may vary depending on the Facility and location of the unit within the Facility. The amenities provided in the unit and shared areas may vary depending on the Facility. The Fixed Housing Cost will remain the same.

2. UTILITIES AND SERVICES:

A. Subject to other parts of the Agreement, the utilities and services supplied to the Facility by the university are as follows (the typical cost of which is part of housing cost): Water & Sewer, Electric, Air Conditioning & Heat, Wireless Internet.

B. Telephone, Local and Long-Distance Service are the sole responsibility of the Resident.

C. Residence Life and Housing Services has the right to suspend any utility or other service to the Premises and Unit. The office has the responsibility to perform maintenance or repairs or to protect them from the risk of harm or loss. Residence Life and Housing Services understand that it must take all actions to restore utilities and services promptly as is reasonably possible under Pennsylvania law.

D. To the extent allowable under Pennsylvania law, Residence Life and Housing Services will not be responsible or liable for loss or damages resulting from the interruption, reduction, stoppage, or suspension of utilities and services to be provided by Residence Life and Housing Services under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, wireless Internet.

E. If there is an interruption, reduction, stoppage, or suspension of utilities or other services, the Resident is not entitled to a reduction in housing costs or additional charges due. Resident's obligations under this Agreement will not be affected or reduced.

F. Residence Life and Housing Services will not be responsible or liable for the malfunction of machinery or appliances serving the Premises or any part of the Facility.
G. Residence Life and Housing Services and its agents are not responsible or liable for damages or injury to persons or property caused by wind, rain, snow, fire, or other acts of God. Resident explicitly releases (gives up) all claims for injury, loss, or damage. Nothing in this Agreement shall constitute a waiver of sovereign immunity of the University.

3. CONDITION OF PREMISES / OTHER ITEMS:

A. Initial/Final Inspections. Before occupancy, Residence Life and Housing Services staff members will inspect rooms/apartments/shared areas and inventory the contents. Each Resident will have the opportunity to complete a Room Condition Verification Form when they move in. All residents of an apartment will validate and sign the inventory for the shared areas of the apartment. This form must be validated and returned to a staff member within 24 hours of receipt. When the Resident vacates the room/apartment/shared area, a final inventory will be taken and reviewed by the appropriate Residence Life and Housing Services staff. It is the residents' responsibility to arrange for a proper check-out. Residents will be charged for lost University property, pro-rated damages, lost keys, excessive cleaning costs, and all repairs. The Resident will be billed for all the damage in the residents' room or apartment/suite during occupancy. Therefore, the Resident must complete all forms accurately to avoid erroneous billing.

B. As-is Condition. Except for the conditions identified in the Report, the Resident accepts the Premises and all the Housing Fixtures in their "AS-IS" condition when moving in. "AS-IS" means the Resident receives them in the condition they are in and that Housing will not have any obligation to perform any repairs or alterations.

C. Damage to Premises and Common Areas. The Resident is responsible for damage caused by the Resident or Residentâ€™s guests, except for reasonable wear and tear.

i. The Resident must pay Residence Life and Housing Services for the cost to repair any loss or damage to the Premises during the Term or those discovered during the final inspection.

ii. The Resident must also pay Residence Life and Housing Services to repair any loss or damage to the Common Areas caused by Resident or Residentâ€™s guests, which shall include Common Area amenities, building-wide shared living spaces, and other parts of the Facility.

iii. The Resident may occupy the premises with other Residents. If the premises are damaged, and Residence Life and Housing Services cannot reasonably determine who caused the damage; the Resident will be responsible for paying Residence Life and Housing Services a proportionate share of the cost to repair any loss or damage to the premises during the Term or existing on the Term Ending Date.

iv. The Resident share will be determined by the total number of Residents in the apartment or Premises.

v. All of Residentâ€™s payments for repair and damages under this Section are due immediately when requested by Residence Life and Housing Services. Residence Life and Housing Services â€œcosts of repairâ€ in this Section will include actual out-of-pocket expenses, plus overhead costs of 15%.

Residence Life and Housing Services will provide routine maintenance and repair of the Unit without additional charge to Resident, except that there will be charges for repairs made necessary by the wrongful act or misuse of the Premises by Resident or Resident's guests.

E. Extermination Process. Extermination, Bed Bugs, Fleas, and Other Pests. Resident must inspect the Unit for bed bugs, fleas, and other pests, within 48 hours after moving in. If Resident does not notify Residence Life and Residence Life and Housing Services of bed bugs within 48 hours, then Resident agrees that no presence of bed bugs exists upon move in. Future identification of pest infestation will be at the University direction with their contracted agent and at the resident's expense. A full policy on Extermination of Pests can be found in the Residence Life and Housing Services Policy and Procedure Manual, located in Exhibit A.

F. Termination of Resident Responsibilities Under this Agreement. The Resident will remain responsible for the Premises until all keys for the Premises are returned. A final inspection of the Unit will be completed by a Residence Life and Housing Services representative and a member of facilities. Cleaning and damages will be assessed and billed to the appropriate Residents as necessary.

G. Agreement Release Request. Upon request by the Resident needing to be released from the residence hall or apartment living, Residence Life and Housing Services will release the Resident and remove the meal plan if applicable. In all such cases, a Student Occupancy Agreement Release Request must be submitted to the Associate Director of Housing. Requests for a full release must be made before the beginning of the semester. I. Withdrawal from the University. In the event of a university departure, a proper residence hall or apartment checkout must occur to receive a prorated refund of housing and applicable meal charges. Failure to complete an appropriate checkout will result in the student remaining responsible for all applicable charges. There is no refund or credit for the housing fee upon unapproved withdrawal from the University. Furthermore, appropriate fees will be charged to those who check out improperly.

J. Removal from Housing for Disciplinary Reasons. Any resident removed from housing for disciplinary reasons will not receive a rebate on housing fees. If applicable, meal plans are canceled, and the remaining cost of a meal plan is credited. Meal plans may be continued by contacting the Office of Residence Life and Housing Services.

The University shall assume no responsibility for the theft, destruction, loss of money, valuables, other personal property belonging to, or in the custody of, a resident for any cause whatsoever whether such losses occur in the Resident's room, apartment, shared areas in the apartment, public spaces, elsewhere in the residence hall or apartment complex.
