

COLLEGE LITERATURE: A JOURNAL OF CRITICAL LITERARY STUDIES

STYLE SHEET

Please prepare your manuscript by following the directions below.

1. Please follow the Chicago Manual of Style (CMS), 17th edition, for style and formatting. CL uses the AUTHOR-DATE SYSTEM of documentation set out in Chapter 15 (Documentation II: Author-Date References). For full details, please consult the CMS, 17th ed.

- AUTHOR-DATE TEXT CITATIONS

The basic form of the author-date citation in running text or at the end of a block quotation consists of the author's last, or family, name and the year of publication of the work. Block quotations always require full citations. Otherwise, full citations are needed at the start of each new paragraph, but if the citation is repeated after that within the same paragraph, only the page number is needed. The abbreviations ed. and comp. are not included in the text reference, but they do appear in the reference list entry. No punctuation is used between the author's name and the date in the text citation, comma is used before page numbers. Always put multiple text citations in chronological order first if possible, alphabetize if necessary.

Examples:

(Blinksworth 1987, 125)

(Collins and Wormaster 1953, 246n4)

(EPA 1986, fig. 5)

(Foley 1955, 23, 43, 46–51)

(García 1998, 67; Wong 1999, 328; 2000, 475)

- WORKS CITED

Authors' names and all titles are in the usual humanities style, including full titles for journals. Note that the dates immediately follow the authors' names.

For webpages, please provide as much of the following information as possible: author name (or corporate author); date of article or webpage publication, or date of last update (do not list the date of access if there is a date of publication or update); title of webpage or article; name of website; the webpage URL or address (do not separate the webpage address—keep it all on one line). If there is no date of publication, please give the date of access.

For films (theatrical release) please use the following format:

Title in Italics. Date. "Directed by" and the name of the director. Company.

EX: Looking for Mr. Goodbar. 1977. Directed by Richard Brooks. Paramount.

For films released as DVDs please use the following format:

Title in Italics. Year of production. "Directed by" name of director. DVD. City of distributor: Distributor, Year of DVD.

EX: Metropolis. 1927. Directed by Fritz Lang. DVD. Hollywood: Paramount, 2003.

2. Please use double spaced lines (2.0 line spacing) throughout your manuscript.
3. Use italics instead of underlining throughout your manuscript. Please do not use bold anywhere in your document.
4. Please do not use section or page breaks in your document.
5. For block (indented) quotations, please indent the left-hand paragraph margin only by 0.5" using the MS Word Format/Paragraph feature (please do not use tabs).
6. Place any notes after the essay, as regular text, under the section header "Notes." Please do not use MS Word's endnote/footnote feature. Indicate notes in the text with superscript Arabic numerals. Do not use notes if the same information can be conveyed through the author-date and works cited system.
7. Place your reference list or bibliography following your notes and label it "Works Cited."
8. Images are only included with the agreement of the journal Editor. All copyright permissions must be secured by the author, and the author is responsible for paying all permission and usage fees. We require satisfactory documentation of copyright permissions and of the full payment of any fees before we can commit to publication. All images must be black and white (not color), 300 dpi, and submitted as jpeg or tif files. For more information about the quality of images required, see the FAQ for authors (at this link: <https://www.press.jhu.edu/journals/author-resources/author-faqs>). If including images, please add a separate MS Word document that lists a caption for each image, which identifies it and provides copyright and permission information as required by the permission holder. If your article includes references to multiple images or graphics, please number them. For further information, please see the CMS, 17th ed.
9. Please note standard style for CL is "US" (not "U.S."); World War II (not "WWII" or "World War 2"). Also, words like "chapter," "part," "preface," "appendix," etc. are spelled out, lowercase, with corresponding numbers in Arabic numerals.
10. For epigraphs, keep font and size consistent, but italicize the quote and indent 0.5" to the right entering between the body of the text. Below the quote, use an em-dash and name of the author of the quote and the source follows after a comma in italics. Full citations are not necessary, but year or additional information can be added if desired.
