

2017 WCU Latino Communities Conference

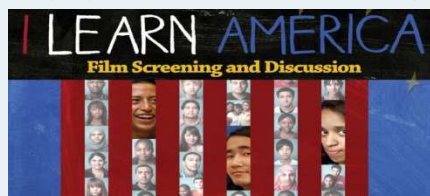

Program Schedule

Thursday, September 28
Day/Time	Location	Activity
8:00 - 9:00	Sykes Lobby	Registration – café y pan dulce
9:00-9:20	Ballroom A	Welcome Remarks Dr. Miguel Ceballos and Dr. Daniela Johannes, Conference Co-coordinators Dr. Jeffrey Osgood, Senior Vice Provost
9:30 - 10:45		Session 1
	Ballroom C	Latina Maternal Health and Immigrant Status in Southeastern Pennsylvania Miguel Ceballos, WCU Sociology, and León Arredondo, WCU Anthropology
	Ballroom A	Immigrant Rights are Human Rights Linda Stevenson, WCU Political Science
	Ballroom B	Puerto Rican Art; Civilization, Colonization, Identity & the Global Stage Daniel De Jesus, Taller Puertorriqueño
11:00 - 12:15		Session 2
	Sykes Theatre	 Keynote Speaker: “The Trouble with My Name,” Dr. Javier Ávila
12:30-1:45		Session 3
	Sykes 255	The Illegality of Immigration Miguel Ceballos, WCU Sociology, and Daniela Johannes, WCU Languages and Cultures
	Sykes 252A	Silence is not Golden: Unveiling Intimate Partner Violence in a Medical Home Mary B Wirshup and Miriam P. Geiger, Community Volunteers in Medicine (CVIM)
	Sykes 254	Latinos and Agriculture: A Changing Demographic Maria Gorgo-Gourovitch, Penn State Extension Educator Horticulture Team
	Sykes 209	Breaking the Language Barrier through Service Learning Projects Andrea Varricchio, WCU Languages and Cultures, and Kathleen Langshultz, WCU student

Program Schedule

Thursday, September 28

Day/Time	Location	Activity
2:00 - 3:15		Session 4
	Ballroom A	Philadelphia: Sanctuary City Basics Miriam Enriquez, Executive Director Offices of Immigrant Affairs, and Joanna Otero-Cruz, Deputy Managing Director, Community Services, Philadelphia Mayor's Office
	Sykes 255	Leaving the Comfort Zone: Social Work Students' Stories of Building Bilingual, Bicultural Competence Michele Belliveau, WCU Social Work, and Kimberly Alegria, WCU student
	Sykes 254	100 Years of Citizenship: Colonial Violence and the Puerto Rican Promise Iliana Pagán-Teitelbaum, WCU Languages and Cultures
	Sykes 252	Human Rights in Latin America Panel and Exhibition León Arredondo, WCU Anthropology, Megan Corbin, WCU Languages and Cultures, Michael Di Giovine, WCU Anthropology, Sebastián Guzmán, WCU Sociology, Daniela Johannes, WCU Languages and Cultures, Linda Stevenson, WCU Political Science
3:30 – 4:45	Ballroom A	Networking Reception
4:00 – 4:50		Session 5
	Sykes 210	Organizing for Immigrant Rights Jessica Culley, Farmworker Support Committee (CATA) and Kaolin Workers Union (KWU)
5:00 - 7:00		Session 6
5:00 – 5:30	Old Library Building Atrium	Human Rights in Latin America Exhibition Tour Michael Di Giovine, WCU Anthropology, and WCU students: Chris Di Maria, Aaron Gallant, Gabrielle Longreen and Emily Rodden
5:00 - 7:00	Sykes Theatre	I Learn America – film screening and discussion of a documentary about immigrant high school students adapting to the United States Jean Michel Dissard, film director/producer, Carmen Pacheco and Christina Salazar, English Language Learner teachers, West Chester Area School District, Innhwa Park and Jelena Colovic-Markovic, WCU Languages and Cultures, TESOL Program

Program Schedule

Friday, September 29
Day/Time	Location	Activity
8:00 - 9:00	Sykes Lobby	Registration – café y pan dulce
9:00 - 9:50		Session 7
	Ballroom A	Left Behind: The Affective Meaning of Trash at the US-Mexico Border Daniela Johannes, WCU Languages and Cultures
	Ballroom C	Welcoming Schools Maria Sotomayor-Giacomucci, Pennsylvania Immigration and Citizenship Coalition (PICC)
10:00 - 10:50		Session 8
	Ballroom A	Current Challenges Facing Undocumented Immigrants in Chester County and Beyond Lindsey Sweet, Esq. and Alicia Anguiano Esq., Immigration Attorneys
	Sykes 255	Ugh! Not Another Diversity Workshop! Justin Brown, WCU Residence Life and Housing Services
	Sykes 252A	Revolución Arte: Social Transformation in the Villa Inmigrante Obed Arango, Holly Link, and Diana Lugo, Centro de Cultura, Arte, Trabajo y Educación (CCATE)
	Sykes 254	Creating Service Learning Opportunities for Public Health Students in a Latino Community: Strengthening Community-Campus Collaborations Debra Bill and Whitney Katirai, WCU Health & Reducing Health Disparities and Improving Birth Outcomes Milana Lanz, Executive Director, Cecilia Arce, Director of Programs, Chester County Maternal and Child Health Consortium (MCHC)

Program Schedule

Friday, September 29
Day/Time	Location	Activity
11:00 - 11:50		Session 9
	Sykes 254	Perspectivas de la canción de autor y sus posibilidades didácticas (The Author's Song: Perspectives and its Didactic Possibilities) Ángel Carrión Tavárez, Universidad de Puerto Rico, Recinto de Río Piedras (English translation/interpretation will be available)
	Ballroom A	WCU Admissions 101 Stephanie Allen, WCU Admissions for Multicultural Student Recruitment and Community Outreach
	Sykes 255A	Latino and _____ Angiliska Morell, WCU Latin American Student Organization
	Sykes 252 A	Honorando las Raíces Familiares: A Sociometric Exploration of Personal Immigration History Maria Sotomayor-Giacomucci, Pennsylvania Immigration and Citizenship Coalition (PICC), and Scott Giacomucci, Trauma Treatment Specialist & Experiential Therapist
12:00 - 1:30	Ballrooms C	Lunch With the Latino Professional's Luncheon of Chester County presentation of scholarship awards to West Chester University and Immaculata students. Greetings from WCU Provost Lorraine Bernotsky and Immaculata President Barbara Lettiere.

