

PA Writing & Literature Project (PAWLP)

Summer/Fall 2018 Courses

3 graduate credits from West Chester University

Reading and Writing the World: Place, Sustainability, & Literacy K - 16 Educators—all content areas. Location: Main Campus

PWP 599 – 21

Instructor: Mary Buckelew

June 25-June 29, 9:00am-4:00pm

Interested in learning more about place-based education (PBE) and sustainability and how you can apply these concepts to your own setting? Through our own exploration and analyses, we will create multigenre/modal projects on place & sustainability and create projects/assignments on sustainability and place, all the while reflecting on applications, implications, and extensions for our own classrooms, communities and universe.

Strategies for Teaching Writing, 4 - 12

PWP 503-31 Location: GAC

Instructors: Rita DiCarne & Greg Maigur

July 9-July 13, 8:00am-4:30pm

Spend a week participating in writing activities, exploring your own writing style, and sharing strategies for writing instruction with your peers. In this course you will experience community building, pre-writing techniques, drafting, revising, editing, and publishing activities which you can take directly into your class- room for your students to experience. You will also work with a response group to polish your writing and to take on the role of student as writer-teacher.

Teach Shift: Passion-Driven Teaching for the 21st Century, K - 12

PWP 599-36 Location: GAC

Instructors: Tricia Ebarvia & Brian Kelley

July 16-July 20, 8:00am-4:30pm

In this course, we'll unpack what it means to be a teacher today and how to be a dynamic teacher for tomorrow. Topics include, growing our professional learning communities; practicing the art of classroom inquiry and action research; identifying our core strengths as teachers; reading the latest research on topics such as innovation, collaboration, advocacy, and teacher-leadership; and creating a concrete plan to engage, learn, support, and measure our short and long-term practices.

Writing and Children's Literature: Creating Successful Writers with Mentor Texts, K-8

PWP 513-31 Location: GAC

Instructors: Lorie Epperson & Dana Kramaroff

July 23-July 27, 8:00am-4:30pm

In this course, facilitators will share their love of children's literature and passion for writing in a relaxed, highly motivating setting. Learn how to connect story elements and literary devices to specific activities, use scaffolds to develop students' writing, and create strategic mini-lessons that link rich literature to the teaching of writing. Expand your knowledge of mentor texts for models of exemplary writing and reader-response activities designed for various purposes, audiences, and genres.
