

PPA Speaker Series:

NASPAA-accredited MPA program: accredited, accessible, affordable

Phi Alpha Alpha Induction, Gender in Public Administration

Featured Speaker

Meghna Sabharwal

April 12th

from 6:00 PM EST

Meghna Sabharwal is a tenured associate professor and a Ph.D. Director at The University of Texas at Dallas in the Public and Nonprofit Management program. Her research expertise lies in public human resource management, specifically related to workplace diversity, job satisfaction, performance, comparative human resource management, and high-skilled immigration.

Dr. Sabharwal has published over 30 peer-reviewed articles and has presented in over 70 international, national, and regional conferences, and has been invited to over two dozen presentations or talks at national and international professional meetings, seminars, or colloquia. Dr. Sabharwal is the current chair of the Section of Women in Public Administration, the largest and most active ASPA sections. She regularly reviews manuscripts for several public administration, public policy, social science and higher education journals.

Dr. Sabharwal received her doctorate in public administration from Arizona State University in 2008. She worked as a postdoctoral research fellow at the City College of New York, City University of New York (CUNY) before joining the faculty at the University of Texas at Dallas in fall 2009.

<https://wcupa.zoom.us/j/92797020441?pwd=VTh0c1lMbURKbVFpd3pJRUpuSW5aQT09>