FROM THE DEAN’S CORNER...

I have been very impressed with the innovating, impacting, and inspiring work that is being done by the faculty, staff, and students in the CBPA. This monthly update highlights recent accomplishments. Congratulations to those individuals and programs that are mentioned in this latest update.

Michelle L. Patrick, Dean

In The News

Bill Adolph (R-Delaware County) Appropriations Chair in the State House of Representatives will serve as the legislative fellow for the Department of Political Science. In this role, Adolph will visit campus to share his expertise with students.

Michael Malcolm’s paper that explores the impact of porn on marriage has been shared over 7,000 times on Twitter and Facebook and was recently interviewed by the Washington Post.

Recognitions

A.J. Cataldo, Lori Fuller (Accounting), and Tom Miller (Economics & Finance) for winning the best paper award at the NABET Conference.

John Kennedy (Political Science) who will be the keynote speaker at the Undergraduate Research at the Capitol-Pennsylvania (URC-PA) Poster Conference.

To the following students who were inducted into the Golden Rams Society: Alicia Campbell (Criminal Justice), Yusuf Hayes (Social Work), Julie McDevitt (Management), Brittany Smeltz and Kevin Weick (Marketing).

To students Ben Lamberty and Rebecca Espinoza (Undergraduate Social Work) for having their work on bullying accepted for the Student Poster Session at the upcoming Baccalaureate Social Work Program Directors annual conference.

Upcoming Events

2/3 WCU Graduate Open House
Sykes Ballrooms
5:30–7:30PM

2/4 Spring Student Organization Fair
Sykes Ballrooms

2/7 Play 4 Kay Basketball Game
Hollinger Field House
1:00 PM & 3:00PM

2/12 Criminal Justice Film Series: Anonymous People
Sykes Theater
7:00 – 9:00PM

2/17 Chartering Ceremony for the SHRM Chapter
Graduate Business Center
7:00 – 6:00 PM

2/25 Spring Career Fair
Sykes Ballrooms
11:00AM – 3:00 PM

Building Update

Work crews have cleared the future site of the new CBPA Center and have begun the task of creating the building’s foundation. Visit the College of Business and Public Affairs’ homepage for more information and a live update.

College Spotlight

International Business Initiative in China:
Linda Zhu (Management) completed a recent international trip where she led WCU’s efforts in developing new partnerships with several University’s in China.