

2000 Sturzebecker Hall of Fame Inductees

Tina Sloan Green, B.S. '66

- Athlete, coach, educator, author
- Professor of physical education, Temple University
- Named to All-American Field Hockey Team, 1965 and 1966
- Member West Chester University Women's Athletic Hall of Fame
- Member International Lacrosse Hall of Fame
- Member Temple University Athletic Hall of Fame
- Member Women's Sports Foundation International Hall of Fame
- In 1988 led Temple lacrosse team to third national title
- Coached Temple's field hockey team to national prominence
- President, Black Women in Sports Foundation

Robert E. Kerper, Jr., B.S. '50

- Distinguished Alumni Award from West Chester University
- Member, West Chester University Athletic Hall of Fame
- YMCA leader on local, regional, and national level
- State PIAA 100-Yard Backstroke Champion, 1941 and 1942
- National Prep School 100-Yard Backstroke Champion, 1943
- Middle Atlantic Intercollegiate Champion and Record Holder, 150-Yard Backstroke and 300 Yard Individual Medley, 1947 and 1948
- State Intercollegiate Conference Champion, 2-Mile Run, 1946 and 1947. Held numerous cross country collegiate running records
- Member, Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame, Berks Chapter
- Member, Berks County Swimming Hall of Fame
- World War II veteran-U.S. Navy; Retired advertising and PR executive

Catherine C. Rush, B.S. '68, M.Ed. '72

- Coached Immaculata women's basketball team to three consecutive National AIAW Championships
- Coached and directed the Gold Medal winning U.S. women's basketball team at the Pan American Games
- Inducted into Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, 2000

- Inducted into Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame
- Former member, U.S. Olympic Committee, women's basketball
- Inducted into Philadelphia's Big 5 Hall of Fame
- President, Future Stars Camps conducting basketball, field hockey, soccer and other sports and arts for boys and girls
- Color commentator for major networks including NBC, CBS, ESPN, PRISM, Comcast and the Sports Channel