

2002 Sturzebecker Hall of Fame Inductees

Phillip B. Donley, PT, ATC, MS

- Educator, author, physical therapist, athletic trainer, sports medicine consultant
- Professor, physical education, health and athletic training, WCU, 1965-1991
- Private practice, Chester County Sports Medicine, 1981-2002
- Hall of Fame: National Athletic Trainers Association, 1991, West Virginia School of Physical Education, 1991, Pennsylvania Athletic Training 2002
- Developed the Athletic Training Service at West Chester University
- Developed the first NATA approved athletic training curriculum in Pennsylvania
- Colonel, U.S. Army Reserve, MSC (ret)
- B.S. degree in physical education and M.S. degree in health and anatomy, West Virginia University

Melvin M. Lorback *

- Chairman, Physical Education Department, WCU for twelve years
- Member of undergraduate and graduate faculty, WCU
- Professor Emeritus, WCU; visiting professor, U.S. Naval Academy, 1991
- Head soccer coach at WCU for thirty three years
- Coached WCU soccer team that won 1961 NCAA-Division 1 National Championship
- Selected coach of 1986 East Senior All-Star team in the senior soccer bowl
- Holds highest national coaches licenses in soccer
- Past president, National Soccer Coaches Association of America
- Conducted numerous soccer clinics, West Chester Soccer Academy and at United States Federation Coaching Schools
- U.S. Navy veteran and retired Lt. Colonel, United States Air Force
- B.S. degree, State University of New York; M.S. degree Pennsylvania State University where he compiled all requirements for doctorate except dissertation
- Published over fifty articles, monographs and manuals

Robert M. Tomlinson, B.S. '70

- Elected Pennsylvania State Senator in 1994
- Served in Pennsylvania State House of Representatives, 1991-1994
- Chairman, Pennsylvania Senate Military and Veterans Affairs Committee

- Vice-chairman, Senate Appropriations Committee
- Captain, West Chester University football team that won State Championships in 1967 and 1969
- Played football in Tangerine Bowl in 1966 and 1967
- Member, West Chester University Football Hall of Fame
- Member, Bensalem Township School Board for twelve years
- Serves on Board of Directors, Lower Bucks Hospital
- Member, Bensalem Rotary Club and Bucks County Economic Task Force
- Funeral Director and owner of Tomlinson Funeral Home in Bensalem, PA

Geralyn Wolf, B.S. '68

- Episcopal Bishop of Rhode Island
- Distinguished Alumni Award from West Chester University
- Played field hockey & tennis at WCU and on regional, national & international level Member, U.S. field hockey team that represented the USA in Argentina
- Taught at the George School in Bucks County
- Master of Arts degree in education, Trenton State College, 1971
- Master of Divinity, Episcopal Divinity School, Cambridge, MA 1977
- Received honorary doctorate degree from Roger Williams University, 1999
- An Associate of the Society of St. Margaret Vicar, St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Philadelphia, PA 1981-1987
- Elected first female dean of a cathedral in an Anglican Communion, Louisville, KY, 1987
- Author of several published anthems
- Has woodworking displays in galleries in New York, Newport and Louisville

Deceased*