

2005 Sturzebecker Hall of Fame Inductees

James P. Argires, B.S. '56

- Physician, neurosurgeon, WCU distinguished alumni
- Practiced medicine in Lancaster for past 37 years and has been president of neurosurgical practice involving as many as 14 physicians and 85 employees
- Served in U.S. Marine Corps in Korean War at age 19; three major combat engagements
- After Korea earned B.S. degree in health and physical education at West Chester University
- Chief neurosurgeon, Lancaster General Hospital, 1976-94
- Medical degree from University of Alabama Medical School
- Named Pennsylvania Division Surgeon of the Year from American Trauma Society in 1991
- Serves on board of trustees, Millersville University and Fulton Financial Corporation, Hellenic College Holy Cross Seminary, Boston, Mass.
- President Pennsylvania State Neurological Society, President MidAtlantic Neurosurgical Society
- Clinical Associate Professor Neurosurgery Penn State University Hershey Medical Center 1997-2002
- Clinical Associate Professor Neurosurgery Penn State University Hershey Medical Center 1997-2002
- Distinguished Honor Award International Rotary 1990
- Honored by Millersville University naming of science complex

Edwin W. Lawrence, B.S.'59

- Teacher, coach professional baseball player
- Director of intercollegiate athletics and professor for 15 years at Cheyney University
- Executive Director, Major League Baseball Umpire Development Program, 1988-98
- Pitcher, Milwaukee Braves baseball organization, 1958-1961
- Pitcher, Parkway Delaware Baseball Semi-Pro League, 16 years
- Member Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame, Cheyney University Hall of Fame and West Chester University Baseball Hall of Fame
- Elected to "Outstanding Young Men of America" in 1970
- Past president, Pennsylvania State University Athletic Conference
- Past member and board of director, Paoli Memorial Hospital, Upper Main Line YMCA, and Chester County Heart Association
- Master's degree from Villanova University and doctoral study at Lehigh University

- U.S. Army active and reserve duty

George McGinness, B.S. '36

- Teacher, coach, Department Chair, Professor Emeritus, Franklin and Marshall College
- Member, West Chester University Glenn Killinger Football Hall of Fame
- Member, Franklin and Marshall College Sports Hall of Fame
- Member, Franklin and Marshall College Football Hall of Fame as a coach
- Franklin and Marshall new swimming pool dedicated as "McGinness Pool"
- Aided in organization and printing of U.S. Naval Manual on gymnastics now used in training Navy pilots
- Head Clinician, sports program, 7th Army Headquarters, 1976
- Owned McGinness Aviation Service in Columbia, PA and built airfield
- Holds commercial pilots license
- Active in community as borough councilman for 36 years; school board member for 4 years

Marty Stern, B.S. '59

- Teacher, coach, and athletic director
- Head track and field coach emeritus, Villanova University
- Won eight varsity letters at West Chester University in track, wrestling, and cross country
- Villanova University Hall of Fame
- Coached 145 All-Americans, 12 NCAA record holders, 7 Olympians, and 4 world record holders
- Brought five NCAA Team Championships to Villanova
- U.A. Air Force Special Services; Air-Force 400 meter track champion, 1961
- Member of Upper Darby High School Wall of Fame, Central Bucks High School Hall of Fame, Delaware County Hall of Fame, and Philadelphia Jewish Sports Hall of Fame
- Has launched a website which can be seen here.