

2006 Sturzebecker Hall of Fame Inductees

Carol B. Clay, B.S. '68, M.Ed., '72

- Athlete, coach, Founder of AIAW small college swimming championship & Women's State Conference Swimming Championships; hosted both events in their first year
- Master's degree, West Chester University, 1972
- Captain, WCU's Women's Swim Team, 1966-68
- Undefeated in dual meet competition all four years; held various national records in four different events; named All-American four successive years
- Inducted into WCU Women's Sports Hall of Fame, 1995
- Inducted into the Clarion University Hall of Fame, 1990
- Coached Clarion women to two small College National Titles and five State Conference championships; Coached Men's Swimming Team in two State Conference Championships & two NCAA third and fourth place finishes
- Won eight national masters swimming titles; held eight national masters records
- Ranked number one in Florida women's 55 singles and doubles tennis, 2004-2005; Ranked nationally in top ten for past fifteen years
- Represented USA and won the Maureen Connelly Cup held in Perth, Australia, 2001
- Awarded "key to the city" by the mayor of Clarion in 1978 for coaching achievements and community service
- Volunteer for: Children's Home, Muscular Dystrophy, Kids in Distress, Leukemia Foundation, Paws in the Park, Humane Society and Boys & Girls Club of Broward

Jane B. Fontaine, B.S. '74

- Athlete, basketball coach, and financial services executive
- Women's Assistant Basketball Coach, University of Maryland, 1975-77
- Master's degree University of Maryland 1977
- Women's Basketball Coach, Mercer University 1977-1980
- Kodak nominated for Kodak National Coach of the Year 1980
- First American female to play pro basketball in Belgium
- Entered financial services industry in 1980; received CLU designation in 1984; ChFC designation in 1987, received CFP designation in 1989; and CASL designation in 2006 from the American College
- Master's degree in Financial Planning from the College of Financial Planning in 1992
- Life and Qualifying member of the Million Dollar Round Table annually since 1986

- AXA-Equitable Hall of Fame 1991
- AXA-Equitable Regional Honor Agent 2003
- Member WCU Athletic Hall of Fame in field hockey, softball, and basketball 2005
- Boards in Ocala, FL: United Way; Endowment Chair, Central Florida Community College Foundation; Munroe Regional Foundation; Senior Services of Marion County; Hospice of Marion County

William Mackrides, B.S. '51

- World War II veteran, U.S. Marine Corps; Professional football player, educator, counselor, and coach
- Co-owner, Indian Springs Day Camp
- Head football coach and high school counselor, Springfield High School-twenty six years
- Assistant football coach, Villanova University
- M.S. degree in administration and counseling, University of Pennsylvania
- Ph.D. in psychotherapy, University of New Mexico
- Led nation in football passing for two NCAA passing records, 1946
- Philadelphia Eagles second round draft pick, member of World Championship Team, 1948-49; member Division Championship team, 1947-49; President, Alumni group
- Member, New York Giants team
- Member, Canadian team, Hamilton Tiger Cats, 1st Team All Stars
- Member, Pittsburgh Steelers
- Inducted into West Philadelphia High School Hall of Fame, Delaware County Hall of Fame, University of Nevada Hall of Fame, and Pennsylvania Hall of Fame
- President, Delaware County Counselors Association
- Member, WCU Alumni Board
- Member, Board of Philadelphia Eagles Fly for Leukemia Organization

Charles Schmidt, B.S. '72, M.Ed., '76

- Teacher, Undergraduate and Graduate Instructor, Employee Wellness Coordinator
- Member, WCU Football Team, 1972-1974
- Lead Teacher, Health and Physical Education, Neshaminy School District
- National Leader to develop bicycling education and credentialing curriculum
- Leader, coordinator, initiator of over $500,000 of grants/partnerships to support health and physical education
- Received national NASPE STARS Outstanding Program Award

- Distinguished leadership physical education award, NASPE, 2002
- Professional Honor Award, PSAHPERD. 2003
- Educator of the Year, 1994, Bucks County Drug and Alcohol Commission
- Best Overall Employee Wellness Program, 1989, American Heart Association

Dale Ulrich, B.S., '72, M.Ed., '77

- University Professor, Fellow , American Academy of Kinesiology and Physical Education
- Member of WCU baseball and wrestling teams
- Ph.D. in Human Performance and Special Populations, Michigan State University
- Asst. Prof of Physical Education, Southern Illinois University, 1981-1985
- Associate Professor of Kinesiology, Indiana University, 1985-1988
- Professor of Movement Science and Physical Education and Director of Center for Motor Behavior and Pediatric Disabilities, University of Michigan, 1999 to present
- Developed quantitative assessment tool known as Test of Gross Motor Development (TGMD)
- Member, Board of Directors, International Federation of Adapted Physical Activity; President, North American Federation of Adapted Physical Activity; Consultant, U.S. Department of Defense Military Schools on elementary physical education curriculum revisions, 2001; Editorial Board, Adapted Physical Activity Quarterly, since 1984
- Recipient, Gambrinus Fellowship by the University of Dortmund's Department of Rehabilitation Sciences
- Visiting Scholar, California State University, San Bernadino, 2003
- 2003 AAHPERD Research Consortium Scholar Lecturer
- Recipient, G. Lawrence Rarick Research Award from the National Consortium on Physical Education and Recreation for Individuals with Disabilities, 1993
- Received a Charles J. Epstein research award from the National Down Syndrome Society, 2005
- Awarded an International Fellowship from the European Union to be a lecturer in adapted physical activity at the Norwegian University of Sport Sciences, Oslo, Norway, winter of 2006