

BS Health Sciences

Student Learning Outcomes

Content knowledge related to the awareness and understanding of health conditions that need to be addressed by society	All students will demonstrate content knowledge related to the awareness and understanding of health conditions that need to be addressed by society.
Planning and Implementation	All students will demonstrate levels of competence in the planning and designing of programs to address the health needs of society.
Principles of health literacy	All students will use principles of health literacy including: advocacy and critical thinking skills necessary for the implementation of programs to address health needs of society.
Knowledge and skills necessary to identify the information needed, and use that information efficiently and effectively within appropriate ethical and legal limits	All students will demonstrate the knowledge and skills necessary to identify the information needed for a task and then to locate, understand, evaluate, and use that information efficiently and effectively within appropriate ethical and legal limits.
Technology	All students will demonstrate the knowledge and skills necessary to identify appropriate technology needed for a task and then to locate, understand, evaluate, and use that technology efficiently and effectively within appropriate ethical and legal limits.