

Department of Health
B.S. Public Health/Environmental Health

Student Learning Outcomes

Student Learning Outcome #1	Students will demonstrate fundamental knowledge about how environmental agents of disease affect the human body.
Student Learning Outcome #2	Students will demonstrate their information literacy by accessing, processing, comprehending, and evaluating scientific information about an environmental health topic.
Student Learning Outcome #3	Students will demonstrate their health and safety literacy and ability to convey this information in a useful way to a specific population
Student Learning Outcomes #4	Students will demonstrate their competence in the skills needed to apply their knowledge within a professional setting.