

Emergency Preparedness Cert

Student Learning Outcomes

Information literacy	Students will demonstrate their information literacy by accessing, processing, comprehending, and evaluating scientific information about an environmental disease agent and communicating that information under simulated crisis conditions.
Competence in the skills needed to assist communities and organizations	Students will demonstrate their competence in the skills needed to assist communities and organizations plan for, mitigate, respond to and to recover from emergencies.