

MOONSHOT@WCUPA.EDU

MOON SHOT WEEK

In Conjunction with the
PASSHE DEI Summit
November 6-13

NOV 6
3:30PM,
ZOOM

Moon Shot Mission
Control Update

Join our WCU Moon Shot for Equity team to talk about findings, recommendations, and next steps for the Moon Shot mission. Click here for Zoom link.

NOV 9
9:45-10:45
AM, ZOOM

Equity Minded
Leadership in Practice Training

This session will also address institutional contributions to inequitable outcomes and how leaders can reflect on their own work to begin the process for change. Click here to register.

NOV 10 11:30-12:30PM,
ZOOM

Equity Minded
Leadership 2.0
Training

What does it mean to apply an equity-minded lens and address institutional change through an Antiracist approach? Session will define and explore these frameworks and allow participants to review and deconstruct policies through this approach. Click here to register.

NOV 13
12-1:30PM, PHILIPS
AUTOGRAPH LIBRARY

Brown Bag Discussion:
Reflections on Dr.
Russell Lowery-Hart

Dr. Lowery-Hart recently gave a keynote inspiring WCU to "rethink student success through privileging the student voice, removing barriers, and committing to a culture of caring." Join the Moon Shot team to discuss how to apply these same principles to our work. Click here to register.

PASSHE DEI Summit Featured Events

NOV 8 12-1:30PM,
CLUB 1871 IN SECC

Heather McGee
Keynote Reception

Stop by lunch, giveaways, listen to the opening speaker New York Times bestselling author and policy advocate Heather McGee. All students, faculty, and staff are welcome to attend the opening reception in part or for the duration of the program. Click here to register by Nov 3.

NOV 8 3:30-4:30PM,
FHG LIBRARY, RM 615

Frederick Douglass
Institute - Banned
Books Panel

Banned Book panel discussion featuring State Senator Amanda Cappelletti; Upper Dublin Librarian of Outreach and Community Engagement and WCU alum, Lauren Smyth; Black Student Union VP, Alexander Jones; and English MA and West Chester Public Library employee, Maddie Bumsted.

NOV 9 1-2:30PM,
ZOOM

Mobilizing Communities to Build a More Diverse
Teacher Workforce

Sharif El Mekki, The Center For Black Educator Development, CEO
Karen Parker Thompson, Pennsylvania Educator Diversity Consortium (PEDC), Founder & Co-Executive Director
Dr. Beth Rajan Sockman, East Stroudsburg University, Professor
Miriam Witmer, Millersville, PA, Director of Future Educator Pathways
Desha Williams, West Chester University, Dean, College of Education and Social Work

Click here for PASSHE DEI
Summit
Schedule