Bachelor of Music: Elective Studies in an Outside Field—Business is designed for those students who desire a general music program while at the same time pursuing a secondary interest in business.

The following block of 21 credits has been established with the College of Business for School of Music students who are interested in pursuing business as their outside field. Students should make note of the course prerequisites listed for planning and scheduling purposes. Students may use one of the ECO courses listed to satisfy one of the two required social sciences for general education. Students may use the MAT course listed to satisfy their math requirement for general education. Questions about the business coursework can be directed to Dr. Orhan Kara (okara@wcupa.edu Anderson 306).
