

RULES & GUIDELINES

- 1a. Swope Music Building large ensemble spaces (SMB 100, 141, and 320) are for the sole use of Wells School of Music courses and activities.
- 1b. Wells School of Music students and student organizations must obtain express permission from their faculty advisor to use the SMB large ensemble spaces (SMB 100, 141, and 320). For SMB 100 a faculty member must submit the request and be present for the event.
- 1c. It is advised that you have your faculty advisor email SOMRMRQ@wcupa.edu with your room reservation requests.
2. There is no food or drink in the rooms and no open flame.
3. Please do not remove chairs or stands from the rooms and please return the room to its designated set-up when you are finished.
- 4a. Students may only request up to 2 consecutive hours for any given event---rehearsals, rushes, meetings, etc. per day; this includes pre and post event times.
- 4b. If you need more time, your faculty advisor will need to request the space on your behalf. Multiple students from the same organization may not book consecutive time slots for the same room for that organization.
5. When you book a room, we will automatically program your ID card to get you into the room for that length of time. We can't program your card to get you in the room early. One person's card per reservation.

6. If for whatever reason your ID doesn't open your room, find a faculty member or custodian and show them your email reservation confirmation. Calling Public Safety should be a last resort.
7. If you need a table during the day, you can sign one out from the main office. If you need a table during the evening, you can sign one out from the music library.
8. Receptions for student recitals must be held in the student lounge (SMB203).
