

SAVE THE DATE!

Ethical Issues in the Treatment of Suicidal Patients with Cory Newman, Ph.D.

Friday, October 25, 2019
9:00 A.M. - 12:00 P.M.

Cost: $50

Location:

The Graduate Center at West Chester
University
1160 McDermott Drive
West Chester, PA 19380

Presenter: Cory F. Newman, Ph.D. is Director of the Center for Cognitive Therapy, Professor of Psychology, in Psychiatry at the University of Pennsylvania Perelman School of Medicine (in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA), and Adjunct Faculty at the Beck Institute for Cognitive Behavior Therapy. Dr. Newman did his postdoctoral training under the mentorship of Dr. Aaron T. Beck, and he is a Founding Fellow of the Academy of Cognitive Therapy. Dr. Newman has maintained a full clinical caseload and has extensive experience as a CBT supervisor, having supervised over 350 professionals-in-training, both at the University of Pennsylvania, and through the Beck Institute's international training programs. Dr. Newman has served as a protocol CBT therapist and supervisor in psychotherapy outcome studies on the treatment of borderline personality disorder, avoidant and obsessive-compulsive personality disorders, major depression, substance misuse, panic disorder, generalized anxiety disorder, and other clinical problems. Dr. Newman is an international lecturer, having presented approximately 250 cognitive-behavioral therapy workshops and seminars at home in the U.S., as well as in twenty-two other countries. Dr. Newman is author of over 100 articles and chapters on cognitive-behavioral therapy for a wide range of disorders, and has authored or co-authored six books, including Core Competencies in Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy: Becoming an Effective and Competent Cognitive-Behavioral Therapist, and Supervision Essentials for Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy.

WCU Community Mental Health Services has received no commercial support for this program.