

The Society of West Chester University
Drum Major for Justice Nomination Form

The Society's Drum Majors for Justice are Alumni who, through their personal and or professional efforts have exemplified themselves as pillars of the community. They are men and women who are role models, leaders in their field, and actively involved in improving the world around them.

The actions of the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. brought about significant changes in the lives of all Americans. His tireless work for racial and economic equality has inspired generations all over the world. Keeping Dr. King in mind when submitting the nomination, the following criteria should be considered:

1. What personal efforts exemplify the nominee? How has the nominee demonstrated social, political, and economic justice in their lives? Provide specific examples of role modeling, leadership in the community and service provided to the community.
2. What professional efforts make them a leader in their field? How have they been change agents? Provide specific examples of both.
3. What has the nominee accomplished preferably within the past 15 years that would make them pillars of the community? How have they been actively involved in improving the world around them?

Please submit the nomination as a type written narrative without bullets. Complete thoughts should be expressed as to the nominee's accomplishments.
