New Faculty FAQs 2022

Q: What is the first pay date for the fall 2022 semester?

A: The first pay is September 23, 2022 and then every 2 weeks thereafter.

Q: What should I know about the difference between 20 and 26 pays?

A: Paychecks are issued on a biweekly basis and the total pay amount for either cycle is the same. 20 PAY is made up of ten paychecks per semester with no pay over the summer months. 26 PAY is made up of 13 paychecks per semester. The first three checks of the spring semester include fall semester pay. The spring pay includes the summer months.

Q: Can I change my pay option once I begin employment?

A: You can only change your pay option effective date with the start of each fall semester. Open Enrollment for changing the pay option is in April of each year.

Q: When do my benefits take effect?

A: Your benefit effective date is August 27, 2022. State Paid Life Insurance goes into effect after a three-month waiting period.

Q: How long do I have to make decisions about my benefits choices?

A: Changes can be made 30 days from the benefit effective date of your contract. Decisions made after September 14, 2022 cannot be processed in time for the first fall pay. As a result, you will see double deductions taken for benefits in your second pay and the premiums for medical coverage will be taken as a post-tax deduction.

Q: When will I receive my benefit cards?

A: Medical card(s) will be mailed to your home address within three to four weeks from submission of medical insurance enrollment. Please make sure your mailing address is up to date.

Q: What should I do if I must see a doctor before receiving my medical and/or supplemental insurance cards?

A: If you must schedule an appointment prior to receiving your cards, please contact the Benefits Team at benefits@wcupa.edu as soon as possible. Ideally, all doctor appointments should be scheduled four to six weeks after your date of hire to allow time to receive your cards.

Q: What about cards for my dental and vision plans?

A: These plans are administered by the PA Faculty Health & Welfare Fund.

Q: Can I change my retirement plan once I begin employment?

A: No, you will not be able to switch between the two types of retirement plans once you begin employment.

If you choose to participate in the ARP plan, you may change between the two vendors at any time.

Q : When can I sign up for my benefits?

A: As part of the New Faculty Orientation schedule, please register for the benefits orientation. You will receive instructions during the benefits orientation on how to enroll in benefits.
