

JOIN THE COMMITTEE FOR EXCELLENCE IN LEARNING & TEACHING (CELT) FOR:

Exploring Service-Learning: How to Connect
Community with Classroom Instruction

Wednesday, October 15th from 9:00-10:30
Sykes Student Union Room 252B

Faculty and staff from the Office of Service-Learning and Volunteer Programs will review best practices for integrating service-learning into classroom instruction. The workshop will include examples of service – learning courses, handouts for getting started, and information about creating community partnerships. Creating Positive Communication with Students:
Navigating Authority and Credibility

Thursday, October 23rd from 11:00-12:30
Sykes Student Union Room 115

Dr. Deanna Dannels is Professor of Communication and Director of Graduate Programs at North Carolina State University. Her current research explores protocols for teacher training and development; as well as frameworks for designing, implementing, and assessing oral communication across the disciplines. She recently published a book titled Eight Essential Questions Teachers Ask: A Guidebook for Communicating with Students. Dr. Dannels will be talking about communication with students (e.g., establishing credibility, navigating authority, and managing relational dynamics). Co-sponsored by the New Faculty Orientation Committee. RSVP to Andrea Grinwis by 10/15 at AGrinwis@wcupa.edu.
